

I do not approve of the FCC in any way overriding state laws regarding phone solicitations. We are a working family, and our evenings used to be plagued with numerous phone solicitation interruptions. Our incoming calls have dropped from probably around 10 per wk to nearly zero. Thank You,
Pamela King